“ Proven ”

[Verse 1: Nia Sultana]

All my faith in you is finally wearin' out
It's the principle, that's what I'm mad about
Are you even in love?
Or just scared of givin' me up
At my wits end..

So now's the time for you to keep it buck on where we stand
If it was love then
You would be in it, all or nothin'
This time I ain't goin' off, there's nothin' left for discussin'
Keep the champagne and the flowers by the dozen
You're so used to havin' your way
Now I just wanna run away, wanna run away, yeah
Somewhere you'll never find me, never find me

[Chorus: Nia Sultana]

My love's been proven
It's you that's been
Not tryna be exclusive, you
Only do this when
You feel like someone's steppin' up
And I start questioning
This situationship and all the time that I've put in
My love's been proven

It's you that's been
Not tryna be exclusive
You're only interested
When you feel like someone's steppin' up
And I start questioning
This situationship and all the time that I've put in
Ooh, ah

[Verse 2: Nia Sultana]

You're not supposed to be here
Why can't you just let me heal?
You don't feel love
You just don't want me to move on
Through the rain, the flowers are blossoming (Such an intimate moment, you deserve the world and I'ma buy it, yes)
Threw with pain (Yeah, ha), back to doin' me again (Yeah, Maybach Music)

[Verse 3: Rick Ross]

Classic gimmicks, just menaces all on my lower body (Lord)
Spendin' money in different countries, stuff is so exotic (Huh)
Lloyd's of London, still runnin' numbers like they know it's Gotti
(Hahaha)
I pull up in and crack the door then let the smoke up out it (Woo)
Who would believe hustling led to beautiful things?
Kissin' you slow, just explode, your feelings increase (Huh)
I let you speak your mind, that divine spirit (Yes)
Now let me do the same as I sign, seal it (Yes)
Panoramic ceilings as we drive in it (Huh)
Tell by my appearance that we really them members (Haha, haha)
Pinky ring's the clearest, lookin' in the mirrors (Woo)
Double M the realest, come and get the clearance (The Biggest)

Meet me at the top, that's where we really livin' (Yes)
It's never smoke and mirrors, shit you really cherish (Haha)
Roses from the florist, ship 'em out of Paris (Woo)
Lamborghini ridin', never feel embarrassed

[Chorus: Nia Sultana]

My love's been proven (Maybach Music)

It's you that's been

Not tryna be exclusive, you

Only do this when

You feel like someone's steppin' up

And I start questioning

This situationship and all the time that I've put in

My love's been proven

It's you that's been

Not tryna be exclusive

You're only interested

When you feel like someone's steppin' up

And I start questioning

This situationship and all the time that I've put in

Ooh, ah

[Outro]

That's what the choice is

Something wonderful, something dynamic, something deserved

Something equal to who you really are

Something in alignment with what you put there

You deserve a wonderful relationship, that's what's there for you
