“Tear gas”

[Verse 1]

Never afraid to be despicable, no
Stood at the brink and you're still looking for the last laugh
You're only crying from the tear gas
Somebody turn us inside out
Maybe you think that I'm too cynical, yeah
Freezing to death stood in the shadow of an avalanche
Are you looking at the hourglass?

[Chorus]

(It's) Do or die
Any other time than now
Any other time than now
Just one life
I guess you're gonna go to hell
Guess you're gonna go to hell
Tell a lie
Anything is possible
We could be unstoppable
Be less than no one to me
Just leave me in the mercy seat

[Verse 2]

Surely this ain't the fucking pinnacle? No
These modern saints would have us writing our own epitaph
Well, we knew that it would never last
Somebody turn us inside out
There's nothing left of ourselves that we won't sell

[Chorus]

Do or die

Any other time than now

Any other time than now

Just one life

I guess you're gonna go to hell

Guess you're gonna go to hell

Tell a lie

Anything is possible

We could be unstoppable

Be less than no one to me

Just leave me in the mercy seat

[Bridge]

We are well aware

No one can stand without a spine

But if we never dare

We'll only flatten out the line

Oh

[Breakdown]

We are well aware

No one can stand without a spine

But if we never dare

We'll only flatten out the line

[Chorus]

Do or die

Any other time than now

Any other time than now

Just one life

I guess you're gonna go to hell

Guess you're gonna go to hell

Tell a lie

Anything is possible

We could be unstoppable

Be less than no one to me
Just leave me in the mercy seat

[Outro]

We are well aware
No one can stand without a spine
But if we never dare
We'll only flatten out the line
