“Common”

[Intro]

Woah, motherfucker, hey

[Chorus: Quinn XCII]

You, you and me

Go together so perfectly

And this don't happen often

We got so much in common (So much in common)

(One, two, three, god—)

[Verse 1: Quinn XCII]

Damn, two peas in a pod

Best friends with the OGs of the squad

Used to kick back, smoke weed in the lot

Get the munchies, Kraft mac and cheese in the pot, ayy

We vibrate

You hate the movies that I hate

And you like the music that I play

And we bump that shit down the driveway

[Pre-Chorus: Quinn XCII]

We both dropped out, we're a little too dumb

Both got a dad who gets a little too drunk

The only thing I still rely on

Only thing I still get high on is

[Chorus: Quinn XCII]
You, you and me
Go together so perfectly
And this don't happen often
We got so much in common (So much in common)

[Verse 2: Big Sean]
Ayy, ayy
And I just gotta say thank you (For what?)
'Cause life changed everything and it ain't changed you (For real)
Even when I think the world's workin' against me
You take the time to tell me, "Sean, you know that ain't true" (That ain't true)
I mean way back before I was my worst critic (Yeah)
You know the lies inside your head are the worst kind (For real)
You always taught me it was beauty in my first mind
And you was with me, I did shroomies for the first time
And I was trippin', but never slippin'
Your mama loved me like I'm folk, like one of her children
I put the faith inside our love, it's like a new religion
And you did see me at my worst and ain't look at me different
Could put the world against you

[Chorus: Quinn XCII]
You, you and me (You and me)
Go together so perfectly (Together perfectly, baby)
And this don't happen often
We got so much in common (So much in common)
You, you and me (You and me)
Go together so perfectly (Together perfectly, baby)
And this don't happen often
We got so much in common (So much in common)
