Left hand can't do much but I can cook with this here And I like that other shit you had, I can't even fuck with this here

Hundred bands on a chain, tell them "look at this here"
We took the risk, nigga, you know what it took to get here Can't hit the block without the sand, what it took to get

Too much money in the bank for me to trip with this here
And these scars on me show you what it took to get here Sacrificing all my time, like a Patek I'm worth it I spend that little shit on shoes, what they asking for
