“Changes”

[Intro]

How am I supposed to miss you every night?
How you left me standin' in the rain?
How you gonna forget all the things we did in one argument
Then (Sound) change, baby? (Hitmaka)

[Verse 1]

Changin' up the tempo ('Po)
You been on my mental ('Tal)
If I could keep you, I would keep it there (There)
We be vibin' like you never left, yeah (Yeah, yeah)
There's damn too much to handle, yeah
But you gave me what I asked for (For), yeah
'Cause I told you that I wanted space (Space)
Yeah, but you didn't have to pump the brakes, mm-hmm

[Chorus]

How am I supposed to miss you every night? (Night)
How you left me standin' in the rain? (Rain)
How you gonna forget all the things we did in one argument
Then change? (Change)
How you tell me I was playin' games? (Games, games)
Treat me like you didn't tell me the same (Same)
How you gonna forget all the things we did in one argument
Then change, change, change? (Change)

[Post-Chorus]

Ah, ah, ah

Change up on me like I ain't keep it a hundred

Ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh

[Verse 2]

Thoughts in the positions I can see you in (In)

Introduce you to some ghetto romance (Oh)

Handcuffs, keys up in the dresser, we can leave 'em there (Leave)

You know it don't make no difference, I can leave it in

You don't have to go (Go)

Know I said it like I meant it (Meant it, meant)

We can pick up right here, where you left it (Here where you left it)

No more lyin' to your friends, they ain't gotta know (Know)

They ain't gotta know

[Chorus]

How am I supposed to miss you every night? (Night)

How you left me standin' in the rain? (Rain)

How you gonna forget all the things we did in one argument

Then change? (Change)

How you tell me I was playin' games? (Playin' games, Games)

Treat me like you didn't tell me the same (Same)

How you gonna forget all the things we did in one argument Then change, change, change?

[Outro]

(Happy Holladay)
