“Faithful”

[Intro: Macklemore]

Feel like I'm running out of time and the sun won't shine forever, forever

I got my mind on my money and my money, man, fuck it, whatever, whatever

Sometimes I wake up on the wrong side, I don't even feel like gettin' up

But this depression on my brain, hope it change, but the rain ain't lettin' up

[Verse 1: Macklemore]

Can't call it, don't know where my head is

Reflectin' on Malcolm and the shit I thought, but never said it

To Peter, Robin, to Kevin, all my other friendships

That could have, would have, should have, and then they ended

I isolate between happiness and hopeless

Know what makes it worse? Still wanna get loaded

Sometimes I feel like can't control my choices

And something takes over and I can't turn off the voices

Sittin' with these thoughts, can't escape 'em, can't run

Got some bullets in the dresser as I polish my gun

They say a day clean is a day won

But I'm holdin' on, prayin' to a god abandoned

Zonin' on the couch, starin' at my daughters

Know there's a pill in this house that I'm obsessin' about poppin'

Reservations talkin', the push and pull of the conscience Should probably pick up the phone and call my sponsor, but don't wanna

When the Percs don't work, Xannies won't calm me down
Not enough liquor in the bar, weed growin' in the ground
Trapped by these walls where my brain can't get out Wonderin' if my mama have to put her son in the ground

[Chorus: Macklemore]

We still goin' when the day break
Me and the homies on the same page
Find me in the whip, that's my safe place
Feel like I'm gettin' weak, I need some AA
Need someone to pray for my soul right now
Everything's looking gray and there's no white clouds
I don't know what to say, I got nothin' to write down
On my knees questioning God like, "Why now?"
I'm lost, but I'm found again

[Bridge: Macklemore]

I'm up all night, I toss and turn
I love my life, I got concerns
I've been through Hell on some FML
It's just as well, I might lose it
I need some light, I need some air
I might be broken, I need repair
Don't got the answers, think I'm confused
I asked myself, "Who are you?"

[Verse 2: NLE Choppa]

I need you right now Mack to wake up more than over Ain't no more weed, alcohol, and poppin' pills, et cetera
I know these days gettin' rough, but they get better
It's a cold world, let's go to the Gucci store for a sweater
Feel it deeply in my heart you need this letter

So I pour my feelings out to you before I go and mail it ('Fore I mail it)
I don't know what I'm sensin', but I can smell it
When you write me back, just tell it, I'ma soak it up, inhale it (Inhale it)
Heard you got a daughter, well, I got one too
And she too beautiful, barely see her too (See her too)
Do you hug her and tie her shoes?
Is she reflectin' of you and got a smile that bloom? (Bloom)
Before you load that gun and shoot
Just know that she be needin' you, the best version of you too (Bah)
I would write more, but my day about to break
We can meet up face to face, just let me know if that's okay

[Chorus: Macklemore & NLE Choppa]

We still goin' when the day break
Me and the homies on the same page
Find me in the whip, that's my safe place (That's my safe place too)
Feel like I'm gettin' weak, I need some AA (I need some AA)
Need someone to pray for my soul right now
Everything's looking gray and there's no white clouds
I don't know what to say, I got nothin' to write down (Nothin' to write down too)
On my knees questioning God like, "Why now?" (Why?)
I'm lost, but I'm found agai
