"LONDON TONIGHT FREESTYLE"

[verse 1: skepta]

big smoke, yeah

i got an ice box where my heart used to be different kind of n+gga, they aren't used to me everyday we celebrate like friday truckload ready to hit the highway with the bl++dy steps, you couldn't believe the kicks billboard n+gga, just posted on the strip millis coming in my account, i can't sleep your girl tryna see if there is any sp+ce in the jeep

it's just to push you till+ push them all to the other end it's people who're gonna go and punch your card [?] punch it that night and go on with friday to get a little money which is just enough to take them back again on monday it's that circle that you have to break

[verse 2: novelist]

uh, hey ran a n+gga, [?] my ends bigger than a program rapping till the max every city that i'm at got a flag and you n+ggas know that they show the due respect cause i owe that said i'm handsome, i already know that big novelist the real n+gga throw back said, "the one who?" they must've smoke crack man of art but never catch me in a tote bag

[verse 3: a$ap rocky,] for other days

i look snake in the eyes

before i roll the dice

what's your price?

time, time, tell it, i'll tell it all

if you let me

blind, my i love you

when i was lost

you loved me

i couldn't tell if i was gone your family

now here i am all alone who loves me?
