"Thinking to Myself"

By and by, all my dreams will soon disappear
I know not when, I know not why

Maybe I should slow down
The same ones that hated, see my shit turned around
They told me that my shit was watered down
A couple plaques years later, man, look at me now
I had to outsmart these niggas
I got my own squad, man
I'm not a part of niggas
Prada on my sweat. Yeah
Be proud of me
New crib, new car, new salary
Told my mama, no matter what, we still family
I'm working hard. No one understands me
Shit real when you start a new family
I need that Louis V fuck it man, I'm calling in Same ones, I seen Jaden moon walking in Moving out the house, looking at apartments
I had dreams about spitin this shit
I guess it's time to let you in. I guess it's time to let you in.

I guess I never learned...

It'll never really work

If you ain't got trust
How you stressed out girl, and you got us
You got bread, you got crust
Never bum down bi'. I'm piped up
I'm a rapper. They recite us
Forever in debt. I love my fans
When I come to your city, man, I'm checking in
And if I'm in Texas, then I'm rolling with phin
Stay close to your heart. Dee & Ricky close pin
I just wanna take a flight to Japan and never come back
Quit all this rap. I guess they want that old thing back
Cuz I'm that new flow with that old flow
Cash by the boat load
Got your girl twerking with my logo
Yeah man, It's a no no

I guess I never learned...
