What I've built on my own

Different space, different zone

Innovate, enter homes

With my face on my phone

Took the bait when they sold me the dream

And I drove to crazier zones and I paid for it

You where there when I told you the plan, you were sold
Then we made it a goal to remain 'til we old
Took the L then I vate, elevate my mistakes
And I copped real estate, just to house all the crazy
