"Gangstarr (EASTMIX)"

one of them all this,
that they gotta feel that project niggas put on Cavalli Here,
everybody's dead.

The handsome nigga with naughty.

Hey,

I got it here.

I grew up in their life,
is not a tear or brown when I get found.

Betty and chocolate is,
don't quit your day job.

It was just me and take my mom.

Looking for a mommy,
that's off.

Make sure I stay home.

Looking for a job.

Google comparisons,

I'm the star,

my game,

the Cuban gotta open.

I told I told them,

I change book bag ounce of cocaine on the train.

Walk through the rain,

Niggas be quiet and do.

I told him talk through the pain?

Y'all know that feeling this feeling,
this kind of strange thing niggas,
get emotional feelings to start to change.

Ever since the day I lost,
William fucked up my brain,
I just lost my grandmother.

No,
nothing to feel the same but my aunt
