"The Realest"

Like like its Kenzo B

Calling me the hottest in the city

Got a treat for someone tryna trick me

See im going up i gotta stay on 50

On my soul i got love for my blicky

Fuck arguing and all the shit that come with it

If it up lemme know we can get it

No bitch on this earth that could knock me off my pivot

Call bro and you know shit get lit ina minute

Like look fuck the dissing

I won't speak on no opps i know thats they want me to mention

But boy he got packed cuz he dont pay attention

How he lack i thought he was a menace

Im to official to care what they say

I know they on my dick so i move with precision

I can't beef bitch im stuck in my ways

Bitches fake and thats why ive been keeping my distance

Bitches aggy

Dick us up on the gram but that bitch knew better than to tag me

Niggas be sassy

If he dont got a gun then you know that lil nigga can't have me

Bitches be maddy

Couldve gave you a 50 bitch i was tryna keep it classy

Top 2 not 2 dont @ me

Dont got a blick then im toting on sally

Fuck ya bitches dont care what yall jacking

We all human anything could happen

Adrelanine rushing then i start attacking

Im outside never ducking no action

When i catch her her face getting flattened

Popping that shit but them bitches is chatting

She was gang why she hopped on the wagon

Its on sight and that shit automatic

How yall satisfied sucking my dick

How yall cool doing shit i already did

Its still up give a fuck about her kid

Can't invite me to link cause i already slid

Thats the facts

All that shit bitches talking i promise that shit is a cap

So relax

Growing up i grew love for the violence

Growing up i was always on timing

Know she soft casue she talking to much and the real know the real always moving in silence

Got a twin if i call him he sliding

Shoot back to back like batman n robin

Fuck the media we gone keep wylin
