"To be alive"

Sunset on main street

I've wasted the light again

On painting the staircase

To somebody else dream

I'm tired of waking up

Cursing my yesterdays

Oh, next time I see my reflection

I'll tell myself

To run till my lungs are breathless

Till this city looks like a memory

I wanna know what it means to be alive

I wanna know what it means to be alive

'Cause only the moment matters

Yeah, the future might never happen

I wanna know what it means to be alive

I wanna know what it means to be alive

So burn all these bridges behind me

I've always been tripping

In somebody else's shoes

So farewell my old self

It's high time I try to be

The voice in my head that keeps screaming

And begging me

To run till my lungs are breathless

Till this city looks like a memory

I wanna know what it means to be alive

I wanna know what it means to be alive

'Cause only the moment matters

Yeah, the future might never happen

I wanna know what it means to be alive

I wanna know what it means to be alive

To be alive

To be alive

To be alive

So I'm gonna run till my lungs are breathless

Till this city looks like a memory

I wanna know what it means to be alive

Yeah, I wanna know what it means to be alive

Only the moment matters

Yeah, the future might never happen

I wanna know what it means to be alive

I wanna know what it means to be alive

To be alive

To be alive

I wanna know, I wanna know

What it means to be alive
