"Better Days"

I've been feeling lonely, I need someone to hold me

Come on, baby, hold me

Yeah, I've been feeling jaded, don't know how I should play it

Tell me how to play it

Now you, you've been moving on

Let me know, can I come along?

Since you're gone, oh, it's been so long

On my own, my own, my own, my own

Living in a haze, staying in the shade

All I do is sit around and wait for better days

I could use a break, can I get an amen?

All I do is sit around and wait for better days

Uh, uh

Can I get an amen? Introverted, can't make friends
Pray for better days, now it's 300K when my day ends
Do you remember last night? 'Cause I blacked out
In that all white dress with her back out
Said be careful with her heart, 'cause it's fragile
And thinking 'bout her past make her lash out

See with me, it ain't no worries at all
Any problem? I'll be there in one call
If we locked in, you my dawg
Fan of you, I'll hang pictures on my wall

Roll one, let's get high tonight
Backseat Maybach, lavish life
Chilling with the stars like a satellite
AP on my arm, and it's shining bright

Living in a haze, staying in the shade
All I do is sit around and wait for better days
I could use a break, can I get an amen?
All I do is sit around and wait for better days

Sit around, sit around, sit around and wait

For better, better, better days, oh

I could use a break, oh

Better, better, better, better

For better days, no, oh, oh, no, no, no

All I do is sit around and wait for better days

Better days

All I do is sit around and wait for better days, no, ooh
