"Can't Change For You"

I can't change for you

I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you

I can't change for you

I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you

I can't change for you

I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you

Girl, I can't stay, my mind been made

No, I can't change for you

Look, I ain't got trust issues, puttin' up with your emotions

I be caught up in the middle, girl, what's wrong?

You ain't gotta get defensive, it'll clear my intuition

Tell me every superstition 'bout your love

I don't do no relations, I got too much money I'm makin', oh

We fight about the shit that we can't fix
You trippin', I just met your replacement, nah, nah

I fell out love, threw my heart away
Playin' like I ain't the one but I'm Hardaway
Memories get made and they fade away
Every time I hit the Wood, this shit get hard to say

I can't change for you
I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you
I can't change for you
I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you
I can't change for you
I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you
I can't change for you
I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you

I know you been tryna move on
Well, I changed page and write a new song
I keep my space now that you gone
'Cause this love race coud take too long
And I don't wanna talk about the old days
Fucked up nights at my old place

She slide to mine like it's homeplate
She left, that's fine 'cause I won't change
No, I won't change

I fell out love, threw my heart away
Playin' like I ain't the one but I'm Hardaway
Memories get made and they fade away
Every time I hit the Wood, this shit get hard to say

I can't change for you
I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you
I can't change for you
I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you
I can't change for you
I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you
I can't change for you
I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you

Girl, you've been messin' with my mental
I'm locked in my room, singin' alone to instrumentals
Am I wrong for havin' all these big dreams?
I know I'm on stage and these girls always screamin' all my songs
But they was all about you

Goin' to bed drunk in the back of a tour bus

You wasn't made for the fame

I know it's gon' hurt but I'm stuck in my ways

I fell out love, threw my heart away (heart away)

Playin' like I ain't the one but I'm Hardaway (facts)

Memories get made and they fade away (yeah)

Every time I hit the Wood, this shit get hard to say

I can't change for you

I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you

I can't change for you

I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you

I can't change for you

I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you

I can't change for you

I'm thinkin' 'bout it but I can't change for you

And I can't change for you, yeah, yeah
