"Can't Tame Her"

Every time (every time)

But she don't care, she gonna do what she wants (she wants)

Because she never needed any reason (reason)

Yeah, she a girl and she just wanna have fun, ooh-oo

No, you can't tame the girl (you can't tame her, no)

'Cause she runs her own world (oh)

So if she wants to party all night (all night)

No, you can't tame her, no

And you can't tie her down

When the night comes around (around)

Said she gonna party all night (all night)

And you can't change her

Can't blame her, can't tame her

And you can't change her
Can't blame her, can't tame her

Don't need no one, she can dance on her own
Club is closin', but she ain't goin' home
Night is still young, where the hell will she go?
Nobody, nobody-nobody knows

Ain't the first time 'cause I've seen her before
Smell her perfume as she walks through the door
I wanna know, where the hell will she go?
Nobody knows, nobody-nobody knows (no)

No, you can't tame the girl
'Cause she runs her own world (she runs her own world)
So if she wants to party all night (if she wants to party all night)
No, you can't tame her, no

And you can't tie her down
When the night comes around
Said she gonna party all night (all night)
And you can't change her (you can't)

Can't blame her, can't tame her (you can't)

And you can't change her

Can't blame her, can't tame her
