"Headstone"

Yeah

I'm fucking sick of this shit

Give me a reason to live

Cause I'm one bad day away from taking it all for myself

For myself

Give me a reason to live

Yeah

Give me a reason to live

Cause I'm out of time

And I'm running away from myself

The clock is ticking and it's only getting harder to breathe

Let's start over again

Let's start over

I'm the same person
Just the shell of a man (I've become)

I won't hold my breath
Cause my lungs are aching
I'm starting to snap
Cause my mind is changing (Mind is changing)

I won't hold my breath
Cause my lungs are aching
I'm starting to snap
Cause my mind is changing

Check

It's hard to think that a year ago I'd taken it all for the reasons I had

This life is tough but we'll make it alone

The end is nigh so I'm walking alone

Give

Give me a reason to live

Yeah

Give me a reason to live

Let's start over again

Let's start over
I'm the same person
Just a shell of the man I've become

I won't hold my breath
Cause my lungs are aching
I'm starting to snap
Cause my mind is changing (Mind is changing)

I won't hold my breath
Cause my lungs are aching
I'm starting to snap
Cause my mind is changing

Give me a reason to live
Cause I'm one bad day away from taking it all for myself

For myself

For myself

For myself

For my

Self

I need a reason to live

Cause I'm burning out
You can't escape anything
When it's part of you
