

Lady May - Tyler Childers Lyrics

This Lyrics is downloaded from Showthelyrics.com check out for more lyrics

"Lady May"

I'm a stone's throw from the mill

And I'm a good walk to the river

My workin' day is over

We'll go swim our cares away

Put your toes down in the water

And a smile across your face

And tell me that you love me

Lovely Lady May

Now I ain't the sharpest chisel

That your hands have ever held

But darlin' I could love you well

'Til the roll is called on high

I've seen my share of trouble

And I've held my weight in shame

But I'm baptized in your name

Lovely Lady May

Lord, the wind can leave you shiverin'

As it waltzes or it leaves

It's been rushin' through my timber

'Til your love brought on the spring

Now the mountains all are blushin'

And they don't know what to say

'Cept a good long line of praises

For my lovely Lady May

Now I ain't the toughest hickory

That your ax has ever felled

But I'm a hickory just as well

I'm a hickory all the same

I came crashin' through the forest

As you cut my roots away

And I fell a good long ways

For my lovely Lady May

For any correction please mail us at showthelyrics1@gmail.com

Showthelyrics.com