"That's Hilarious"

Look how all the tables

Look how all the tables have turned

Guess you're finally realizin' how bad you messed it up

Girl, you're only makin'

Girl, you're only makin' it worse

When you call like you always do when you want someone

You took away a year

Of my fuckin' life and I can't get it back no more

So when I see those tears

Comin' out your eyes, I hope it's me they're for

You didn't love when you had me

But now you need me so badly

You can't be serious

That's hilarious

Thinkin' I would still want you
After the things you put me through
Yeah, you're delirious
That's hilarious

Now you put the blame in (now you put the blame in)
Now you put the blame in reverse
Tryna make me feel guilty for everything you've done
You're another lesson (you're another lesson)
You're just another lesson I learned
Don't give your heart to a girl who's still got a broken one

You took away a year (took away a year)
Of my fuckin' life and I can't get it back no more
So when I see those tears (when I see those tears)
Comin' out your eyes, I hope it's me they're for

You didn't love when you had me
But now you need me so badly
You can't be serious
That's hilarious

Thinkin' I would still want you
After the things you put me through

Yeah, you're delirious (you're delirious)

That's hilarious (that's hilarious)

You didn't love when you had me

But now you need me so badly

You can't be serious (you can't be serious)

That's hilarious (that's hilarious)

Thinkin' I would still want you

After the things you put me through

Yeah, you're delirious (you're delirious)

That's hilarious (that's hilarious)
