You Only Love Me"

I'm outside your house again, freezing in the cold

Waiting for the moment I learned to let go

I've been messed up a thousand times with tears in my eyes

But all the pain, it fades away, when you say it right

I try, I try, and I try

To tell myself it's alright

'Cause I'm terrified

You only love me when the

Whiskey's pouring

Four in the morning

You only love, you only love

You only love me when the

Night is over

No one to hold ya
You only love, you only love
You only love me when the

You only love me when the
You only love me when the

I can't believe you look at me the way I look at you
'Cause no one's ever loved me like the way that you do
I've been messed up a thousand times, but you make it right
And even on my darkest days, you show me the light

I try, I try, and I try
To tell myself it's alright
'Cause I'm terrified

You only love me when the
Whiskey's pouring
Four in the morning
You only love, you only love
You only love me when the
Night is over (yeah, yeah)
No one to hold ya (whoa, whoa)

You only love, you only love

You only love me when the

You only love me when the

(Oh, yeah, uh, oh)

You only love me when the

Whiskey's pouring

Four in the morning

You only love, you only love

You only love me when the

Night is over

No one to hold ya (yeah, yeah)

You only love, you only love

You only love me when the
