"24/7"

Can we just sit down, have a little conversation?
Yeah, I wanna talk it out 'cause I'm all up in my feelings
I never felt this before and I just wanna feel some more
We used to keep it casual, now I wanna just be yours
Can we sit down, try to have a little conversation?

See you got me all in my head
Every day with you is like the weekend

I try to quit, but truth is I don't want to, yeah

'Cause 24/7 I'm thinking about you

24/7 I'm thinking about

You, you, you, you, you, you, you

You, you, you, you

24/7 I'm thinking about

You, you, you, you, you, you, you

You, you, you, you

24/7 I'm thinking about you

Staring at the clock, how'd I get so damn impatient?

I know you just left, but I'm missing you like crazy

I usually don't get this far, always cut 'em off before

My heart gets in too deep, I'ma let you in too deep

Now tell me, how's that for a little motivation?

See you got me all in my head

Every day with you is like the weekend

I try to quit, but truth is I don't want to, yeah

'Cause 24/7 I'm thinking about you

24/7 I'm thinking about

You, you, you, you, you, you, you

You, you, you, you

24/7 I'm thinking about

You, you, you, you, you, you, you (thinking about you, oh-oh)

You, you, you, you (no, oh-oh)

24/7 I'm thinking about you

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah

I've been thinking about you
You have me still thinking about you, oh my Thinking about you, about you, oh-oh

See you got me all in my head
And every day with you is like the weekend

I try to quit, but truth is I don't want to (I'll try, I'll try)

'Cause 24/7 I'm thinking about you

24/7 I'm thinking about you, ooh

You, you, you, you, you, you, you (you)

You, you, you, you

24/7 I'm thinking about you

You, you, you, you, you, you, you (you)

You, you, you, you

24/7 I'm thinking about

You, you, you, you, you, you, you (you, you, you)

You, you, you, you

24/7 I'm thinking about you
