"4EVA"

Yeah

That means forever

That means forever

That means forever

That means forever

Yeah, walk up in this bitch like sak pasé (yeah)

She over here talkin' 'bout n'ap boule (yeah)

I'm so west, it should be my last name, ayy (yeah)

I'm lookin' for a cutie, someone who won't betray (whoa)

Yeah, and my love goes deep

If I say, "I love you," then that shit is what I mean

I see you gettin' wetter through your Jacquemus jeans

My forever is forever, can't let nothin' come between

Diamonds in my ear put your wifey in a trance

After we kick it, I'ma turn into a fan (woo)

Can't respect a nigga if that's somethin' he demand (woo)

I'm loyal to my niggas and I'm loyal to my fam (true)

Y'all switchin' sides like Stacey Dash (true)

Pride is the cost, you could price the tag (true)

But for 45 minutes, I'ma gets the bag (brrd)

Finna be there for my sons like my name Steven Nash (yeah)

Or Booker, this a light cook up (uh)

My bitch fine, yes, sir, she a looker (uh)

This KAYTRAMINÉ, we don't need no DJ

Not a place or a face we done seen like Ciesay

That means forever (forever and ever, forever and ever)

That means forever (forever and ever, forever and ever)

That means forever (forever and ever, forever and ever)

That means forever (forever and ever, forever and ever)

That means forever

Forever like André say (say)

Champagne and lemon with the Bombay, bae (bae)

French 75, but my French so frey (ah)

Comment tu t'appelles? Je m'appelle Aminé (shee)

I'm starin' at your eyes but you starin' at my lips (true)

You talkin' 'bout your momma, but you thinkin' 'bout my dick (true)

I catch on these nuances and assists (true)

I told her, "Get a grip," then she hit me with a grip (in public)

She so loud, she sound so disgustin' (ah)

We so loud it sound like a discussion (ah)

I hit it with some rhythm, call it pussy percussion (ah)

Spank that ass, broke her back up in London (ah)

Hit it like Anderson, pack that pussy up, baby, I'll handle it (sheesh)

No matter if you with somebody new (new)

You gon' think about me, and I think about you too (too, forever)

That means forever (forever and ever, forever and ever)

That means forever (forever and ever, forever and ever)

That means forever (forever and ever, forever and ever)

That means forever (forever and ever, forever and-, whoa)

That means forever...
