"Crocadillaz"

Send a sentiment

Taste the destruction

Earth-level angles folded and tucked in

Your four corners pervade in seduction

Pretty veneer boys, step to the rear

I'ma play the chairman and step to the chair

It's the darling of it all

Carving on the wall

Tag the A-Train to Altamira

Life is intoxicating, I need a beer

Witness the master, I see, got the hammer phone cocked

The dawn ain't stopping, so the rocking won't stop

The rain hasn't fallen so the farmers won't crop

The price of fame will not drop

Ricochet, baby, never the bullseye
Play the sheep, but beware of the wolf's eye
Hypnotised by the crocodile's smiles
The exchange is brief but watch for the teeth

Send them healing
They need it, talk
To look at things
Stay blessed, talk

Time of mindfulness
Prior to making changes
To look at things
No regrets
Success

Do, do, do, do, do, do, do, do, mhm
Do, do, do, do, do, do, do, do, mhm

Ricochet, bass is bouncing off the walls
Crocodile emblems, they say it all
Grinning beginnings turn into bites
You can hide your hand but you can't hide the yikes

Teeth lined in ivory bouncing off the walls

Gatorade sipping, that says it all

Hiding your hand but you can't hide the yikes

Good rhythm, good vibes, good nights

Do, do, do, do, do, do, do, mhm
