"High Price "

They say love don't cost a thing, that's lies
It costs time that you can't get back, high price
Give it your all, now you're got nun left, nice try
Everything happens for a reason, that's life
I can't be here how you need me, baby time come with a fee
Heart colder than the blizzard that you came on with a fleece
I been focused on the mil' dreamchasin' like I'm Meek
I just stood ten toes down still I had to face defeat
I been lookin' for an empty soul that I can fill with love
Know I'm supposed to be a gangsta, lately I just need a hug
I'm surrounded by some gangsters so I gotta remain tough
Niggas see you actin' soft, and they gon' get yo ass in blood
People sayin' that I'm needy, even call me greedy
Tryna play the victim, need a bag, now you need me
If loving me is hard, then walk away and make it easy

Not locking no one down, fuck a girl, fuck a freebie
Get away ASAP, tryna be your Riri
Help me build the brand and put the money in a CD
Life's a movie, TV, get to feeling 3D
Been cut so long now my wounds is three feet deep
They say love don't cost a thing, that's lies
It costs time that you can't get back, high price
Give it your all, now you're got nun left, nice try
Everything happens for a reason, that's life
Ooh I almost fell in love like a couple times
Solid nigga, I ain't tryna play
I spent about a thousands on my kicks, a hundred-thousands on my neck
My chain worth more than a Patek
Can't tell you about no confession, no girlfriend, never had one
I ain't gon' lie to you baby, you a bad one
Really deep inside, I hope you will be down to ride
If we really catch a vibe there's a magnum that's going past her
Niggas play with you, can't imagine 'cause I'ma blast 'em
Let me know you want this forever or just a fast run
Other bitches mad, they out here like "Why you jack 'em?"
I think they wan' fuck a young nigga 'cause he platinum
Hoes, I attract them, laws, I adapt them
Hits still coming 'cause these shows, gotta pack them, act 'em

Ain't too much that you can say 'bout that one
I was tryna love a bitch, it only put me back one
They say love don't cost a thing, that's lies
It costs time that you can't get back, high price
Give it your all, now you're got nun left, nice try
Everything happens for a reason, that's life
They say love don't cost a thing, that's lies
It costs time that you can't get back, high price
Give it your all, now you're got nun left, nice try
Everything happens for a reason, that's life
