"Robbery Part 5"

She lost all her memory

She lost all her memory (J-J-J-J-JR)

Damn

I have a seat look in her eyes, I'm like

"You don't remember me?" (Me)

She noddin' off, can't really talk

She still weak i'm feelin' relieved

I take my hand off my heat

The cop like, "When the last

Time you saw her, sir?"

(What?)

I give him a card like, "That's my lawyer

You can talk to her"

Said the "L" word to him

Now he feel defeated (Lawyer)

He like, "Bet

Here's my card if you ever need it"

(Alright) the doctor look at me like, "Sir

I know you grievin' but she need her rest

She just got out of surgery this evenin'"

I'm like, "Doc', listen

She won't forgive me if I leave

You won't even know I'm here

She made me promise, then agreed"

(Bet) now for a whole month

We been kickin' it with each other

(Catchin' up)

The doctors finally tell her she can leave

She recovered she look at me like

"I know I don't remember nothin'

But one thing I remember is

I never had a brother" (What?)

"So who are you? Why you been

Here more than my mother?" (Listen)

I said, "Listen

I been here because I love you" (I love you)

"We ain't never get married, but, baby

I'm your husband" (We didn't)

She like, "Your energy familiar
I knew it was somethin'" (Knew it)
"You got me out of situations, for that
I'm grateful" (Grateful)
"Gon' always be with you and that's
My way of sayin' thank you"
She like, "Boy, you stood by my side
I appreciate you gon' always be your woman
I'm gon' always be faithful" (I know)
And she ride every time I ride (Every time)
I made it out and she survived
You can't question God (That's crazy)
And you a vibe
They ain't fuckin' with you in my eyes
(At all)
And as long as I'm alive, need you by my side
You with me? Let's get it (Let's do it)
All that street shit behind now (Behind now)
Startin' a family my full-time job now
(That's my job)
I'm out here tellin' hoes the truth
Ain't no more lyin' now i got a bitch
So play the side or get timed out

(Or get cut off) matter fact
Why fuck with all these bitches
When you got a queen?
And I ain't missin' nothin'
She do everything
Nigga, I'm wide awake with the
Girl of my dreams make it official
Then my happy ending gon' be complete
Next day
I went out and bought a wedding ring
(A big one) this gotta be my wife
She survived and she set me free
(Let's get it)
Before I got on one knee and said, "Marry me"
She pulled out a gun like, "Nigga
I remember everything"

I remember everything i remember everything

I remember everything i remember everything

I remember everything i remember everything

I remember everything i remember everything
