"There You Go"

Please don't come around talking bout that you love me
'Cause that love sh— just a'int for me
I don't wanna hear that you adore me
And I know that all you're doing is running your mind games
Don't you know that game beats game?
So your best bet is to be straight with me
So you say you wanna talk, let's talk
If you won't talk I'll walk, yeah it's like that Got a new man, he's waiting out back
Now what, whatcha think bout that? ('Bout that)
Now when I say I'm through, I'm through
Basically I'm through with you
Whatcha' wanna say?
Had to have it your way, had to play games
Now you're begging me to stay
There you go, looking pitiful
Just because I let you go

There you go, talking bout you want me back
Sometimes it's be's like that, so
There you go, talking bout you miss me so
That you love me so, why I let you go?
There you go, 'cause your lies got old
Look at you, there you go
Please don't come around talking bout how you changed
How you said goodbye to what's her name
All it sounds like to me is new game
And I was right when I thought I'd be much better off without you
Had to get myself from 'round you
'Cause my life was all about you
So you say you wanna talk, I don't Say you wanna change, I won't
Yeah, it's like that
Had your chance, won't take it back
Now what, whatcha think 'bout that? ('Bout that?)
And when I say I'm through, I'm through
Basically I'm through with you
Whatcha' wanna say?
Had to have it your way, had to play games
Now you're begging me to stay
There you go, looking pitiful

Just because I let you go
There you go, talking bout you want me back
Sometimes it's be's like that, so
There you go, talking 'bout you miss me so
That you love me so, why I let you go?
There you go, 'cause your lies got old
Look at you, there you go
Ooh, don't you wish you could turn the hands of time?
Don't you wish that you still were mine?
Don't you wish I'd take you back?
Don't you wish that things were simple like that?
Didn't miss a good thing 'til it's gone
But I knew it wouldn't be long
'Til you came running back, missing my love there you go
There you go, looking pitiful
Just because I let you go
There you go, talking 'bout you want me back
Sometimes it's be's like that, so
There you go, talking 'bout you miss me so
That you love me so, why I let you go?
There you go, 'cause your lies got old
Look at you, there you go!
There you go, looking pitiful

Just because I let you go
There you go, talking 'bout you want me back
Sometimes it's be's like that, so
There you go, talking 'bout you miss me so
That you love me so, why I let you go?
There you go, 'cause your lies got old
Look at you, there you go
There you go, looking pitiful
Just because I let you go
There you go, talking 'bout you want me back
Sometimes it's be's like that, so
There you go, talking 'bout you miss me so
That you love me so, why I let you go?
There you go, 'cause your lies got old
Look at you, there you go
There you go, there you go
