"Boat"

Came in for the embers

Stayed out for the breeze

I need to feel elements to remind me

There's beauty when it's bleak

Stuck out long before lights down

Why do I breathe?

Oh I know

The more that I love the less that I feel

The times that I jumped never were real

They say that all scars will heal but I know

Maybe I won't

But the waves won't break my boat

But the waves won't break my boat

The stones crash on the boardwalk

The wind rush through the trees

I keep my eyes peeled

The memories always fall short

Of what we could have been

Left out long before last call

What do I need?

Oh I know

The more that I love the less that I feel

The times that I jumped never were real

They say that all scars will heal but I know

Maybe I won't

But the waves won't break my boat

But the waves won't break my boat

But the waves won't break my boat

The waves won't break my boat

The more that I love the less that I feel

The times that I jumped never were real
They say that all scars will heal but I know
Maybe I won't

And the waves won't break my boat
