"Living in a Whirlwind"

Living in a whirlwind!

Spiraling out of control!

In the eye of the storm

Disconnected, from the world you were born

Cheating death, just to get your fix

Cannot survive, its the end of the line

They look you in the eye and all they see is an empty stare

Living like a rat, you choke on your own despair

Still you're sinking lower, each day more desperate

You hide below the surface, waiting for the end

ESCAPE

Must escape

Ridden with the stress that YOU CAN'T TAKE

Arrgh, must escape

Not time to turn back, FAR TOO LATE

Can't escape

Everything around you, ceased to make sense

Waiting until your time will come...

To pass

Look into the mirror at what used to be your face

A ghastly visage you don't recognize, gone without a trace

Wasted

WHIRLWIND!

WHIRLWIND!
