"Two Wrongs"

I'm just sitting here playing the guitar

(City High. Claudette. Wyclef)

Excuse me if you see me screaming

Deep in my mind I'm only dreaming

'Cause if I wake, girl, and you're not by my side

I'd feel like half of me is no longer alive

So, please, shorty, before you walk out that door, booby

Would you listen to my song

If only I give you one last chance

With the devil you can no longer dance

You got to be faithful, so we could be fruitful

Build a family and follow God's destiny

So just before I run to the block, papi

I might listen to your song

Ooh, before you walk out that door, listen

They say two wrongs don't make it right

(don't make it right)

So if I'm wrong I ain't trying to fight

I'm trying to have some dinner with some candlelight

Lay up in the bed and make love all night

So, papi, I won't leave, maybe I'll just stay

But promise me that you'll do the same

Girl I'ma love you like I never love

(touch me like you never touch me)

Yo if you give me the chance, girl

(yeah baby)

I'm gonna show you

Now baby understand

(I understand)

That I forgive you

And I ain't gonna forget

That you brought me pain

(baby, baby, baby, baby)

But I have grown
From a thug to a man
Build my castle with bricks
And no longer with sand
Oh, girl

And just before I run to the block, baby
I might listen to your song

They say two wrongs don't make it right
(don't make it right)

So if I'm wrong I ain't trying to fight
(I don't wanna fight)

I'm trying to have some dinner with some candlelight

Lay up in the bed and make love all night

So, papi, I won't leave, maybe I'll just stay

But promise me that you'll do the same

Girl, I'mma love you like I never love

(touch me like you never touch me)

Yo if you give me the chance girl

I'm gonna show you

I'm so used to the pain that I

Can't see the sunshine no more

I'm so used to the pain that the

The sickness feels like the cure

Ay, but if only you gave me

The keys to your soul

And let me in

I'm gonna love you

Over (over) and over (over) again

They say two wrongs don't make it right

(don't make it right)

So if I'm wrong I ain't trying to fight

(I don't wanna fight)

I'm trying to have some dinner with some candlelight

Lay up in the bed and make love all night

(make love to me)

So, papi, I won't leave, maybe I'll just stay

But promise me that you'll do the same

Girl, I'ma love you like I never love

(touch me like you never touch me)

Yo if you give me the chance, girl

I'm gonna show you

I ain't gon' stay around the block no more

I'll come home early, girl, I promise
