"Lowest In Me"

Trying to let go, but you won't let me

So I'm closed off, hating all I see

Play the victim so carelessly

You're addicted to uncertainty

Uncertainty

You bring out the lowest that I have in me

I feel the chaos and the gravity

And I can't escape the bitterness, I can't change

You bring out the lowest that I have

Lowest that I have in me

Try to hold back all the anger

But it's a trigger and I can't relax

Losing focus on the things you lack

So you push me to the brink

And I don't know what is next

You bring out the lowest that I have in me

I feel the chaos and the gravity

And I can't escape the bitterness, I can't change

You bring out the lowest that I have

Lowest that I have in me

Lowest of low

I'm so fucking high

Sever all ties

I don't recognize what I've become

Thread is pulled, you've made an animal

You bring out the lowest that I have in me

I feel the chaos and the gravity

And I can't escape the bitterness, I can't change

You bring out the lowest that I have

Lowest that I have in me

Lowest that I have in me
