"calm & patient "

Check, check, check, I
Ah-ah-ah
Ah-ah-ah-ah-ah

I'm satisfied with life
I do not just get by, I thrive
What a miracle to be up and alive
Sending love to those who are stuck in the fight
I cannot relate to the hate that they made up in their mind
I do not participate because every single time I'm

Down on my luck, down in the dumps
Down in my darkest hour
You lift me up, you pick me up
You gave me so much power
And now I know, I'm never alone
It is so easy to see that
It is your love lightning me up

And I know whatever happens, I'll be happy
Because I happen to be good in any situation
Calm and patient, by your grace I'ma be
I'll be singing through the pain, I'ma dance in the rain
I'ma feel it, I'ma always keep the faith
I'ma be okay 'cause I'm still in it

And it isn't easy, I know it, believe me
It wasn't always this way
Of all of the things I have tried out my favorite
Is giving thanks and praying

More than a wish, more than I imagined
I manifest by making it happen
There is a gift even in the madness
And when I'm

Down on the dumps, down on my luck
Down in my darkest hour (in my darkest hour)
You lift me up, you pick me up
You give me so much power (so much power)
And now I know, I'm never alone
It is so easy to see that (it's so easy)
It is your love lightning me up

And I know whatever happens, I'll be happy
Because I happen to be good at any situation
Calm and patient, by your grace I'ma be
I'll be singing through the pain (I'll be singing through the pain)
I'ma dance in the rain (dancing in the rain)
I'ma feel it, I'ma always keep the faith
I'ma be okay 'cause I'm still here, 'cause I'm still in it

Oh, oh, oh
And I know I owe you all my praise and thanks
And I refuse to lose even one bit of faith
It's the way that you're always showing me
Your grace, oh, your grace
Grace

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh
Calm and patient
Pull me by your grace
I like you, I like you, I thank you, I
Thank you
Ooh, ooh, yeah
